VIGILANCE AWARENESS WEEK CAMPAIGN 2024

16th Aug. to 15th Nov. 2024

---

Integrity Pledge

An Integrity Pledge (bilingual) for organizations was undertaken on 29-10-2024 as per the guidelines of Central Vigilance Commission (CVC), Govt. of India, for maintaining highest standards of integrity, transparency and good governance in all aspects of our operations. All staffs of CSB-CSRTI, Mysuru participated and took the integrity pledge.

Guest Lecture-1

Guest lecture on Integrity as a Culture” A Vigilance Perspective focused on Preventive Vigilance Aspects was organized at CSB-Central Silk Board-Central Sericultural Research and Training Institute (CSB-CSRTI), on 09-10-2024 by Shri M. B. Deepthi Kumar, Scientist-E, BARC, Govt. of India. He has described code of conduct of central government employees for maintaining integrity, transparency and accountability in our work place. Also highlighted the administrative rules based on different examples of government employees, for updating our knowledge on “rules and regulations” need to be followed by government servants during their service. The lecture was very informative to improve transparency in governance and public administration for offering better services to the stake holders and society.

Guest Lecture-2

As part of the Vigilance Awareness Week Campaign 2024, CSB-CSRTI Mysore hosted a lecture on cyber security on November 7, 2024, delivered by expert software professional, Shri Krishnamurthy Ramalingam. The session focused on the importance of digital vigilance, where scientists and staff actively participated and engaged in discussions about safeguarding data in research environments. The session summarises the different types of cyber-crimes happening around the world and the precautions to be taken to not be the victims of cybercrime.
